

my complaint is against the fcc itself. free speech no longer seems to be of the utmost importance anymore. u bible thumpin bush supporters are trying to take away freedoms we all enjoy. just because janet jacksons breast was exposed we are all going to suffer? lighten up gentlemen. europeans see nudity all the time on television and they are not morally bankrupt, like u think we'll all become.

Oh my god i saw a breast, now i'm some sort of deviant? unbunge people. we're all adults here, if i don't like the channel i'll change it. if i don't like what i'm hearing, i'll change that too. it's not for you to decide, it's my decision!!!
